MERCURY
Park Lane

This American car from the mid-60's is a convertible with automatic hood of imposing dimensions and rectilinear forms. It has three-speed manual transmission in the steering column. The Park Lane was built together with the Monterrey but with a higher level of interior finishes. The slogan was 'for those who want a Ford but more luxurious than a Ford'

The day you have to choose, enhance the beauty of your photos even more with this charismatic model, because where a passenger feels best is in the back seat of a majestic convertible.
